JAMESTOWN MALL
REDEVELOPMENT

Jamestown Mall Redevelopment Public Forum

Just a friendly reminder that the first public forum for the Jamestown Mall Market Analysis and Feasibility Study will be held next week on Wednesday, June 29th, from 4:30 - 7:30 pm at the Saint Louis Zoo's WildCare Park located at 12385 Larimore Road, St. Louis, MO 63138. This meeting will use an open house style format where attendees will have the opportunity to talk one-on-one with team members while reviewing and offering feedback on the initial six land use scenarios. Attendees will also have the opportunity to weigh-in on development principles and prioritize evaluation criteria. No formal presentation will be given, so stop by anytime between 4:30 – 7:30pm. Give your neighbor's a hoot, mark your calendar, and plan on joining us at the Zoo's WildCare Park on Wednesday evening. Let's work together to reimagine Jamestown Mall.

Dive Deep Into the Data ...

From economic data to retail analysis and infrastructure, the planning team has been busy gathering and analyzing various types of data on the former Jamestown Mall site. A series of interim reports are now available on the project website for you to review. These reports highlight and summarize the initial data findings. Please take a few minutes to review these findings prior to attending the upcoming public forum.
